

Big Lottery People's Projects Competition – Iris Cancer Partnership is a finalist.

-  We are delighted to announce that Iris has been chosen to be 1 of the 5 finalists in the East of Scotland region of the Big Lottery People's Projects competition www.thepeoplesprojects.org.uk
-  The People's Projects gives the public the opportunity to choose which charitable organisations the Big Lottery Fund will support.

Our film is on Tuesday 1st March, STV News, between 6.00-6.30pm

-  Iris's film is the first one to be shown on STV East. The other 4 films will be on each weekday night that week, in the same time slot.
-  The public can vote on the People's Projects website, where all 5 films will be available to view from 9.00am on the 29th February 2016.

What is Iris?

-  Iris is a Scottish charity, formed in 2010, committed to promoting, supporting and providing cancer care massage services throughout Scotland.

How will winning benefit cancer patients?

-  Iris will be able to create 20+ new weekly clinics across Scotland, fund our volunteer scheme going forward and Iris therapists will be able to give an extra 3000 massages per year in Scotland

How can you help?

-  To help us secure enough votes to be in the top 3 projects in the East of Scotland region please ask your family, friends, work colleagues, clubs, local community connections to vote for Iris Cancer Partnership.

Our film was made at Westerhaven, a partner project in Edinburgh, where 5 Iris therapists massage each week. Joannie, Gail, Stephen and Lucy, who all live with cancer, shared their Iris stories with the reporter.
